

TRANSCRIPT OF GRAVESTONE MEMORIALS
IN THE HIGHER LEVEL OF ST ANDREWS CHURCHYARD, SHALFORD

made September-October, 2006, by David Cobb for Shalford Local History Society.

Notes: the record begins in the north-east corner of the churchyard (i.e. close to the bottom end of Clifffield). The rows are recorded from right to left, which to a considerable extent represents the chronological order of initial burial in each plot. To help people find them, only memorial stones are numbered - prefixed by the row number and then a serial number in the row e.g. the first memorial in Row 5 is 5.1. Spaces without stones are excluded from the numbering. Many graves also have metal markers whose numbers are often unlikely to correspond with the church's record of occupants.

The abbreviation 'ILMO' stands for the ubiquitous 'In loving memory of; 'IMO' for 'In memory of'; 'ICMO' for 'In cherished memory of.'
